

KANATA THEATRE

Studio Productions
'76

Saturday, April 24th
Stephen Leacock Public School

THE NEIGHBORS
by
Zona Gale
DIRECTED BY
LAURENCE THORNTON

THE CAST

Mrs. Abel Maureen Power
Grandma Barbara Rootman
Ezra Dewi Williams
Peter Brian McLaughlin
Inez Linda Panson
Mrs. Moran Marianne Wilkinson
Mrs. Trot Nancy Jackson
Mrs. Ellsworth Pat Horsey

THE SETTING

A midwestern American small town, about 1912

I N T E R M I S S I O N

Soft drinks will be available in the foyer
Please, no drinks or smoking in the auditorium

Three Scenes from
THE CORN IS GREEN
by Emlyn Williams

DIRECTED BY
LAURENCE THORNTON

Miss Moffat Brenda Robinson
Morgan Evans Ian Robertson

THE FIRST WARNING
by
August Strindberg

DIRECTED BY PETER JEFFERSON

THE CAST

Axel Brunner. Bob Knight
Olga Brunner Rosemary Scott
Rosa Alanna Knight
The Baroness Mary Mauger
A maid Liane Freedman

The action takes place in Germany
shortly before the turn of the nineteenth century

PRODUCTION STAFF

Producer	Rosemary Scott
Lighting	Bill Williams
	Dewi Williams
	Peter Jefferson
Stage Manager	Bob Horsey
Technical Assistants	Eufron Williams
	Liane Freedman
Makeup	Eufron Williams
	Annmarie Copple
Refreshments	Anne Holland
Front of House	Sally Rose

Studio productions are meant, basically, as a training exercise for actors and directors, and we aim to keep the production side as simple as possible. As producer of tonight's plays, I would like to thank the two Directors, who kept their requirements to an absolute minimum; the members of the casts who collected their own properties and costumes, and all the others who responded so cheerfully to my requests for assistance.