

kanata theatre

LLOYD GEORGE KNEW MY FATHER

by

William Douglas-Home

eighth season
1976 — 1977

PRODUCTION STAFF

Producers	Annmarie Copple, Ann Dubras
Set Design	Ron Maslin
Set Construction	John Gilliland, Geoff Holland
Set Crew	Jack Hayes, Ted Mauger, Geoff Moppett Duncan McTaggart
Set Furnishings	Liane Freedman, Jenny Haynes, Thelma Leslie June Marie Northcote
Stage Manager	Martin Haynes
Lighting	Philip Copple, Bill Williams
Sound	Chris Robinson
Properties	Mary Mauger, Rosemary Scott
Continuity	Anne Holland, Eufon Williams
Wardrobe	Mary Holmes, Gwen Jefferson, Mary Mauger Ann Williams
Make-Up	Marg Anthony, Rosie Keneford
Publicity	Rosemarie Lawless
Programme	Liane Freedman
Front of House	Rosemarie Lawless, Barbara Rootman
Tickets	Jim Holmes, Mary Holmes
Bar	Brooke Keneford
Publicity Photographs	Steven Sweet
Posters	Sian Williams

Our Special Thanks to:

Lt. Colonel R. Longbottom, Commanding Officer of the Governor General's Foot Guards

Brill's Interiors

Don Renaud Fine Clothier Ltd., 2255 Carling Avenue

Fashion Flair II of Kanata

Eddie of Alexanian Carpet at 130 No. 15 Highway, Bell's Corners

Mrs. Green of Hazeldean Antiques

Frank Conolly & Sons (Hunting Outfit)

Thelen Torontow, 282 Bank Street

Kanata Beauty Salon

Dr. Roger Hughes

John Cabotto Restaurant of Kanata

LLOYD GEORGE KNEW MY FATHER

by

William Douglas-Home

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French Inc.

Directed by Maurice Dubras

CAST (in order of appearance)

LADY BOOTHROYD (Sheila)	Doreen Boss
ROBERTSON	Dewi Williams
GENERAL SIR WILLIAM BOOTHROYD	Ron Maslin
HUBERT BOOTHROYD, M.P.	Peter Jefferson
MAUD BOOTHROYD	Brenda Robinson
SALLY BOOTHROYD	Cathy Anderson
SIMON GREEN	Brian McLaughlin
THE REV. TREVOR SIMMONDS	Stephen Jones

The action of the play takes place in the sitting room of Boothroyd Hall — Sir William's home.

Time: The present

ACT I

Scene 1 — Saturday morning
Scene 2 — Sunday morning

ACT II

Scene 1 — Sunday evening
Scene 2 — Monday morning

There will be a 20 minute intermission during which the Bar will be open in the Foyer