KANATA THEATRE

Season tickets may be exchanged for an alternate performance, subject to availability of seats. Exchanges must be made prior to the date indicated on the ticket. Since they are sold at a discount there will be no cash refund.

The best available seats will be assigned to each order as soon as it is received. Specific requests will be considered if possible. If you order early, you will increase your chances of getting a good seat. Renewals and requests for changed seating from last season's subscribers will be given priority until September 8. The sale of Season Tickets ends September 22.

Individual tickets will be available about two weeks before each play at regular prices of $3.50 and $2.50. (Students and Senior Citizens $2.00 and $1.50).

If you would like copies of this brochure mailed to your friends, please call the Box Office at 592-1715.

1979/80 Season

FORTY CARATS adapted by Jay Allen from a play by Barillet & Gredy — A romantic comedy dealing with the confusions, prejudices and conflicts, as well as the delights of May-December romances.

Directed by Lawrence Thornton

24 — 27 October 1979

DANDY DICK by Arthur Pinaro
The Reverend Dean, to finance the church spire renovations and his daughters extravagances, gambles on a 10 — 1 outsider, Dandy Dick, with hilarious results. Pinaro at his best!

Directed by Brooke Kenneford.

5 — 8 December 1979

THE COUNTRY GIRL. by Clifford Odets
An intriguing backstage drama of ambition, love, failure, hate and success in the theatre world.

Directed by Peter Jefferson & Gwen Knight.

20 — 23 February 1980

TWO AND TWO MAKE SEX
. by Richard Harris and Leslie Darbon
A comedy of mid-life, it's crises, it's psychoses,
it's affairs and it's errors of identity.

Directed by Ron Maslin.
