It is September 30, 1975. In a small Texas town, the Disciples of James Dean have gathered for a meeting. On this, the 20th anniversary of the death of their idol, these Disciples have come together to remember the good times. Friendships have become strained through the years, but high school friends always know each other and are always there for one another no matter what secrets they have kept from one another.

You are invited to the reunion of The Disciples of James Dean as they re-discover their friendship and share their secrets on this very important night.

Following the Tuesday, September 21 performance, members of the audience are invited to join the cast and crew for refreshments in the foyer of the Playhouse. Come, meet and greet the Disciples of James Dean!

Kanata Theatre acknowledges with special appreciation the following friends who have provided items or services to the benefit of the play:

Dan Mrkich - author of "Summer Was Only Beginning"
Cohen & Cohen Ltd.
Carol & Brian Bean - Pakenham General Store
Nickel's Kanata Restaurant
Rockin' Johnny's Diner - Kanata
Occasions - Kanata
Dan Hoffman - Curator of the Nepean Museum
Tin Cup Express - Carp
Jim Rose

There are more biographies and more information about Kanata Theatre on our Web site; you can also find out about coming events or send us comments. Look for our World-Wide Web page on the Internet at:

Magmacom Communications (228-3565) generously made the space for the site available to us.

The box office opens two weeks before the opening night of each play. Our hours are: 5 pm to 7 pm on Monday through Friday, 10 am to noon on Saturdays, and 5 pm to 8:30 pm on play nights.

You can also reserve seats by phone (831-4435). Tickets must be picked up no later than 30 minutes before curtain time; however, we urge you to pick up your tickets as soon as possible after ordering, to avoid the last-minute rush at the Box Office.

If you need to exchange your ticket, we must receive your old ticket at least 24 hours before the performance time shown on the ticket.

You may have noticed that many performances play to packed houses. If you are a season ticket holder but are unable to attend a particular play, please don't waste your tickets: do give them to a friend or neighbour, as we are unable to issue refunds.

Season tickets are still available for Kanata Theatre's 1999-2000 season, and give you a guaranteed seat for each of the four remaining plays in the season. Brochures with order forms are available in the foyer.

A Season of Plays to End the Century

Come Back to the 5 & Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean
by Ed Graczyk

September 15 - 18 and 21 - 25

Directed by Dorothy Gardner

In this dramatic comedy for our age of film and fantasy, an icon of the movies touches the lives of an unusual group of women.

The Death of Dracula (Mors Draculae)
by Warren Graves

October 27 - 30, November 2 - 6

Directed by Beverley Brooks

The century's favourite ghoul and Transylvania's most famous emigrant, along with Renfield, Mina, Van Helsing and the others, are back to scare you again in the retelling of the Dracula story - just in time for Hallowe'en.

The Curious Savage
by John Patrick

January 19 - 22 and 25 - 29, 2000

Directed by Susan Monaghan

The 20th century's obsession with psychoanalysis is on the couch in this very funny comedy that asks the question: Are the normal normal or do they just seem that way?

Kindertransport
by Diane Samuels

March 22 - 25 and March 28 - April 1, 2000

Directed by Brooke Keneford

Thousands of Jewish children were smuggled out of Hitler's Germany to safe havens before the onset of war. This new drama tells of three generations of women uprooted in one of the darkest moments of the last 100 years.

Jacques Brel is Alive and Well & Living in Paris
by Eric Blau and Mort Shulman based on Brel's lyrics and music.

May 24 - 27 and May 30 - June 3, 2000

Directed by Jim Holmes
Musical direction by Larraine Gorman

A timeless musical cavalcade of the century just ended - its life, laughter, and love.
