In case anyone asks how the Eastern Ontario Drama League one act play festival went this weekend from the My Narrator table...

4 wins of 8 (eight!!) nominations:

Donald Endicott Award for Best Coordinated Production - the stage management team (win)

Penny April Award (Adjudicator's Award) for Stage Management - Josh Kemp (win)

Nepean Little Theatre Award for Acting - Kenny Hayes (win)

Brighton Barn Theatre Award for The People's Choice Show - "My Narrator" (win) (accepted by our lighthouse director, Kathleen Walsh)

Pauline Grant Award for Acting - Tara Sprickerhoff (nominated)

Helen R. McGregor Award (Adjudicator's Award) for Assistant Stage Management - Clare Flockton & Matt Ramsden (nominated)

Nancy Chajkowski Memorial Award for Costume Design - Kathryn Clarke (nominated)

Adjudicator's Award: Penny April Award for Lighting Design - Jim Mantle (nominated)

A completely unforgettable experience. I'm so proud of this show. Congratulations to all the productions, the resulting and deserved nominations and wins they received, extra huge thanks to every single person who had anything to do with the putting together of this year's wonderful festival, and of course to the hyper-energized audiences. And finally, to the MN team: thank you for having me on board. I'm so proud of this show. We nailed it, team. I love you all and miss you already, including Miles. 🥰🥳👏🎵🍷🎉
